Councilman Zoning Plea Draws Local Ire

Mrs. Decla Kelly, chief deputy in charge of the South Amarillo tax assessor-collector office, stands knee deep in license plates. Mrs. Kelly believes the Amarillo courthouse annex should be expanded and enlarged. Commissioner Jo. Fulgenzi put forth the idea to The News Monday.

A Canyon city commissioner's request that property on 4th Avenue be rezoned to commercial use has sparked a controversy which is expected to come to the fore tonight at a public hearing on the request.

About 20 residents are expected to attend the public hearing tonight to voice concern over a proposal by Dr. Willis Harrison, city commissioner, and Brian McDonald that properties on the southwest and northeast corners of 4th Avenue and 26th Street be rezoned from multi-family to commercial.

Two dozen residents with property near the property concerned met last week to discuss the ramifications of the zoning request and their presentation tonight.

"We'd like to know what he's (Dr. Harrison) up to," said one resident, who asked to remain anonymous.

"He's asking for commercial and I don't want it commercial," he said.

The request will be considered following the public hearing tonight by the city's planning and zoning commission.

One resident charged that the request, if approved, would constitute spot zoning, a concept which he said "is bad for the town."

Several residents said letters of protest are being written the planning and zoning commission concerning the request.

Harrison appeared before the commission in late January to request the change in zoning.

"A lot of people would like to know what Dr. Harrison has in mind," said another resident. "All we know is that he's requested a change in zoning. There are people, of course, who are concerned about the ramifications of such a change."

The resident noted that Harrison does not have to tell commissioners what he plans to do with the property.

"People are concerned not just about the fact that they don't know what's going on, but what this could do to the area as a residential neighborhood," he said. "In my case, even if I knew what was going in there, it wouldn't have anything to do with my feelings.

"You're either for or against commercial zoning. I'm against it — even if I know what's going in there."

The resident said the fact that Harrison is a city commissioner also concerns him.

"I wouldn't want to scream conflict of interest just yet, but it concerns me," he said. "There's a precedent here. I'm reasonably sure that if he came to the city commission and said he wanted it changed to commercial and nobody complained that the precedent would be set for spot zoning.

"The precedent bothers me as much as anything."

Several residents noted that the city zoning ordinance does not prohibit spot zoning, but they condemned the concept of spot zoning.

The planning and zoning commission meets at 7 p.m.

County Annex Expansion Eyed By Fulgenzi

County Commissioner John Fulgenzi said Monday he believes courthouse annex facilities in South Amarillo should be expanded.

He asked that the item be placed on the agenda for Monday's meeting of commissioner's court.

"A lot of people in Randall County are pushed out of shape because they think they should have a better facility," he said. "I agree with them."

Fulgenzi told the News the traffic in and out of the South Amarillo annex warrants larger facilities particularly for the tax assessor-collector office there and for Justice of the Peace W. W. Hancock.

The commissioner said the majority of the taxpayers in the county live in South Amarillo and deserve a better facility.

At least two officials who office in the South Amarillo annex agree.

"I imagine the population has doubled since this building was built," Hancock said. "This courtroom is too small to really hold court in."

Hancock said his courtroom is "awfully crowded."

"I have to get 18 or 20 jurymen in here and by the time we get them and all the lawyers we have people standing up," he said. "It's just not suitable.

"The majority of the people in Randall County come through this office three times a year to buy license tags, register to vote and pay their taxes."

Mrs. Decla Kelly, chief deputy of the tax assessor-collector's office in South Amarillo, agreed.

With seven employees and one part-time worker, Mrs. Kelly said her office is over-crowded.

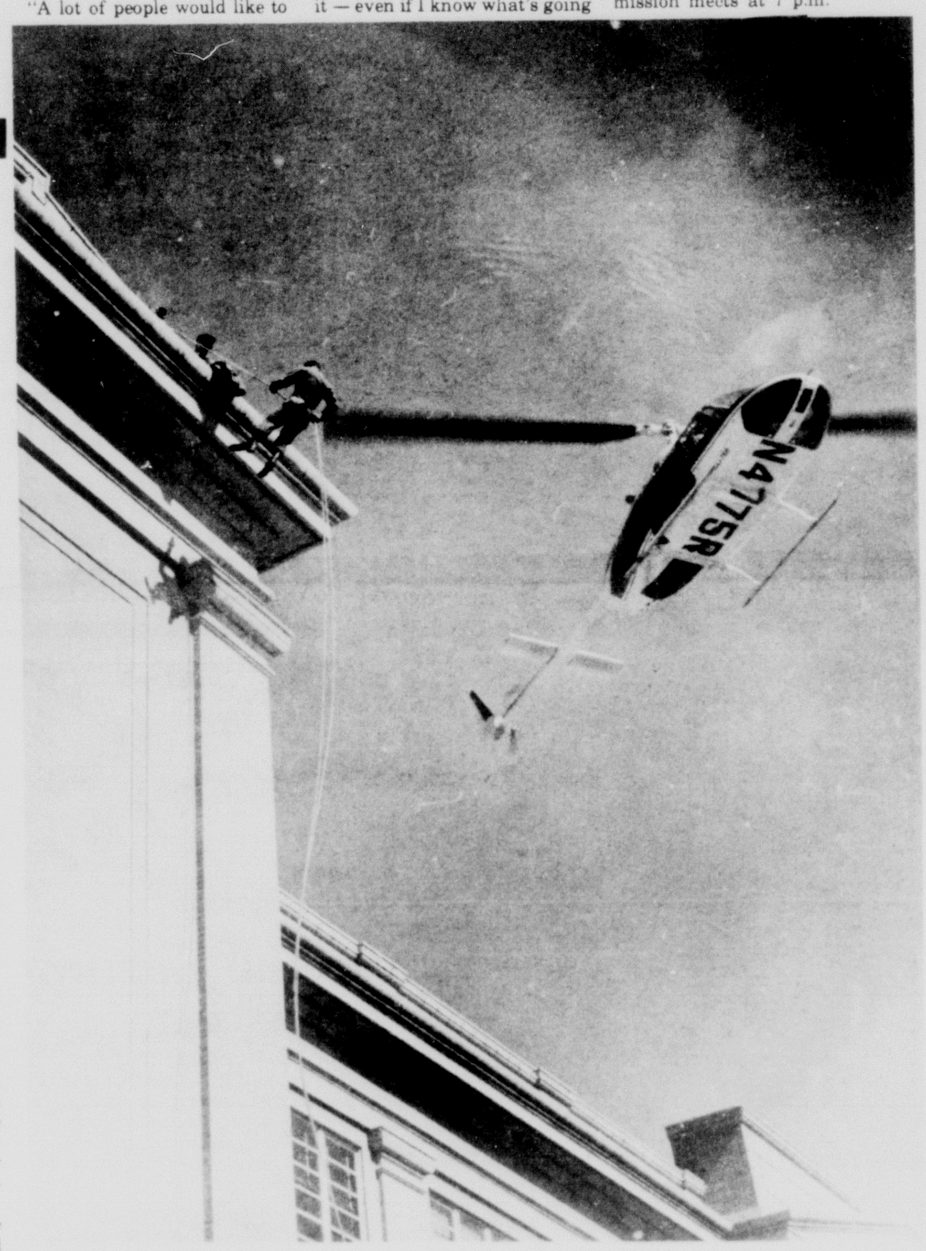
She noted that 78 per cent of the license tags sold in the county are sold through the annex office.

When visited Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Kelly's office was crammed with boxed license plates. Large filing cabinets were standing in corners and work desks were cramped in one corner of the office.

"We're cramped all year," she said. "The population has more than doubled since 1956."

Offices are provided in the South Amarillo annex for the justice of the peace, the tax assessor-collector, the juvenile probation officer, the sheriff and for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The parks and wildlife department is confined to the north end of the annex and the tax assessor-collector's operation consumes the south end of the annex.



A helicopter hovers above the old administration building on the West Texas State University campus so Amarillo photographer Bill Rhew can film the rappelling exercises of the university ROTC cadets. A film is being made on WTSU. See story on page 10.

Girl Eagles In First State Duel With Calhoun On Friday Night

Canyon's Girl Eagles go to Austin this weekend to defend their AAA state championship title and regain that berth again for 1973.

The Eagles leave Friday for their first night game in the state championship tournament in Austin.

They will meet the girls of Calhoun High School of Port Lavaca.

Game time is 7 p.m.

"I don't know a thing about them," Coach Bob Schneider said Tuesday. "They have a 22-12 record and that's all I know."

For Schneider, it will be the coach's fifth time to travel to Austin for the state tourney.

The Girl Eagles won the championship in 1969, then returned to Austin in 1970 and 1971 only to lose in the finals. They won the championship again in 1972.

For Friday night's outing, Schneider said his girls will have to go into the game with the disadvantage of knowing nothing about their opponents.

Schneider said the Girl Eagles are ranked number 2 in the state behind Angleton.

"Ratings don't mean a whole lot," he said. "However, Angleton has only lost one game. They had a 33-1 season record."

The Eagles have been taking it easy this week, polishing up their game and working on weak points.

"We had just one workout yesterday and I thought it was a good workout," Schneider said. "It wasn't outstanding. We're trying to improve on what we've been doing all year."

Schneider said the Eagles must play better forward defense.

In reviewing the Eagles win over the Stephenville Honeybees last weekend which put them in contention for the state crown, Schneider said the Eagles made too many fouls.

"I don't think we played that bad," he said. "But, we were trying to play more the style of Stephenville rather than our style. We didn't play consistently."

Schneider said the girls failed to adjust to the close officiating.

"We're not going to change anything," he said. "We've just got to play our own game."

That game consists of constant pressure on the opposition, pressure from the forwards and the guards.

Rep. Poff Sees Million Dollar Return On University State Funding Request

As much as $1 million could be tacked onto the state's Legislative Budget Board recommendation for funding for West Texas State University, bringing the university's budget to within $500,000 of its original request total.

State Rep. Bryan Poff told The News last week he expects the Legislature to approve a budget for WTSU amounting to about $8.2 million.

That would still be under the $8.7 million requested by WTSU of the Legislative Budget Board.

The Legislative Budget Board recommended a $7.2 million budget for the university for 1973-74.

Poff said the university budget is based on a complicated formula used by the Budget Board to figure funding. The formula is based on student enrollment.

"Dr. Cornette (James P. Cornette, university president) and Virgil Henson (financial vice president) asked for 100 per cent formula funding," Poff said. "That's not usually done. Usually they ask for 80 or 90 per cent funding. If they get the 100 per cent they should get money back."

Poff said he will work to ensure legislators understand that the university is experiencing "temporary decline in enrollment and it would unduly damage the school.

"We need to assure them if they give us the money we need we can stabilize the decline and turn it around."

The state representative implied that if any masters degree or doctoral degree programs are in the mill for WTSU now is the time to submit them to the legislature for approval.

"If WT can propose some doctoral or masters program I think I can have sufficient influence to have them approved," he said. "In the future this would make the financial picture more solid."

Poff said he is chairman of the Legislative subcommittee on higher education, the committee

Attorney Objects When Butler Talks Depository

Legal representative for one Canyon bank explosively objected to County Commissioner Bill Butler's participation in selection of a county depository Monday and charged the commissioner with "gross misuse of descretion."

Elton Cox, attorney for First National Bank, appeared on the bank's behalf to haggle with commissioners over their selection of a county depository for the next two years.

Cox's charge came after Commissioner John Fulgenzi moved that the commissioners reject bids from First National Bank and West Texas State Bank and readvertise for bids from banks outside the county.

Butler, who had discussed the depository question throughout the meeting to that point, seconded the motion.

Cox jumped from his seat brandishing a law book, cited a statute number and said:

"You have completely taken part in these proceedings. You're a stockholder in West Texas State Bank and you've already taken part completely. We object. I think it's a gross misuse of discretion on your part."

Cox cited a statute which states that stockholders in banks on commissioners courts cannot participate in any proceedings concerning the awarding of bids for depository.

He handed the law book with statute marked to Butler and then pointed out the statute to the commissioner.

Cox also warned the commissioners that if they reject both Canyon bank bids, later accept a bid from outside the county, and something adverse happens concerning the low bidder, they could be in danger of legal action from taxpayers for "gross abuse of authority."

Fulgenzi's motion to reject the bids went without a second and died.

Before being called down by Cox, Butler and Fulgenzi took the position that in selecting a depository bid, the county should eye the amount of interest to be earned with the intent of earning the maximum return on the depository investment.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey said he feels the primary concern of the county in selecting a depository should be in the protection afforded the county's money.

"Taxpayers live besides in the City of Canyon, "Fulgenzi said. "They live mostly in Amarillo. If we need to take our money outside the county to get the maximum return for the public benefit then we need to do it."

Cox said amount of interest

Phone Company Backs Off On Rate Hike Request Here

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. withdrew their proposal to hike telephone rates in Canyon late Wednesday.

City Manager George Loudder said City Atty. Elton Cox was contacted by a Bell attorney who withdrew the proposal. Loudder said he expects a formal notification today.

The Bell action came following a Wednesday afternoon meeting between company and city officials over the manner in which Bell filed for rate increases here.

Bell officials were not present at a Monday night meeting of Canyon city commissioners. At that time commissioners were formally informed by Mayor Manly Bryan of last Friday's Bell action to raise rates.

Commissioners had decided to hold a joint meeting with Bell officials before the effective date of the rate increase — Feb. 27 — concerning the rate filing.

The phone company stirred a wind of controversy last Friday when they filed with the city clerk a statement that they will raise Canyon phone rates across-the-board effective Feb. 27.

The phone company filed their rates on the basis of a 1966 ordinance and resolution, which they claim give them the right to set rates in Canyon without receiving prior city commission approval.

Only brief discussion surrounded the action Monday night, but commissioners agreed they should meet with Bell officials before the effective date of the rate increase.

Following the city action, David West of Canyon complained to commissioners about telephone service in Canyon.

Quarter System Coming Next Fall For Students

Canyon's schools will be operated on the quarter system beginning next fall, a system which one official said holds exciting possibilities for expanding educational opportunities for students.

Decision to go to the quarter system was made Tuesday night by members of the Canyon School Board after they heard three officials outline the advantages and potential of the system.

The quarter system means students will begin and end school terms at the same time, but the 9-month school year will be divided into three parts rather than two under the semester system now in effect.

"This is the most exciting thing I've ever done professionally," Mrs. Ruth Holladay, director of curriculum for secondary education, told board members. "It has such tremendous possibilities."

Mrs. Holladay, Junior High Principal Dave Corley and High School Principal John Sommer outlined their plans for implementing the system next fall and said the advantages of the quarter system far outweigh the disadvantages.

Mrs. Holladay said the system opens the door for many new courses, including opportunities for independent study for gifted or slow high school students.

Scrapped under the new system would be the concept of grouping students according to abilities, Mrs. Holladay said. Classes would include the broad range of students with varying abilities.

Corley and Sommer outlined several advantages the system has:

They noted that a summer school would be offered under the plan, with courses attended by students on a tuition basis.

A major advantage of the system, they said, was that more courses can be offered, courses including geography, social studies and others.

The concept would eliminate study halls in the high school.

Shorter courses would give students who are misplaced an opportunity to get out of the course in a shorter period of time.

Students would have a psychological advantage in that they would have more courses to choose from and would have more choice in their own curriculum.

Corley and Sommer warned, though, that the system may require at least an extra teacher per school on the junior high and high school level.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs said changing to the system would require no budget changes for the year.

The state had passed a bill recently requiring schools to go to the quarter system by next fall, but another bill now on the Governor's desk would postpone the implementation until the mid-1970s.

Corley, Sommer and Mrs. Holladay recommended the plan be implemented now rather than waiting.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

David West went out in a blaze of glory last Thursday night with an excellent banquet and a speaker who was right at home here in the conservative Panhandle.

Keith Jackson, sportscaster for ABC-TV and member of an eastern seaboard press generally conceded to be liberal, told the gathering that Americans should return to the old competitive spirit.

He blasted the Olympic officials of Munich and took a crack at American athletes and coaches who apparently were too shiftless to find out when their events took place and thereby missed the competition.

Jackson struck a responsive chord with women listeners when he pleaded for women to have a chance in sports competition.

He said American girls could dominate international sports if a fraction of the money spent on men athletes were spent on their female counterparts. He noted that when men were trying out for the Olympics trainers and team doctors almost outnumbered the athletes.

Conversely, he said, when the women's tryouts were held one contestant wore the same tape on her foot for five days because no one present could have replaced it if she had removed it.

Jackson put the icing on the cake when he gave half of his speaking fee for the establishment of a scholarship at West Texas State University for some girl student who wants to compete in athletics. The gift amounted to $500 and West said an effort will be made to perpetuate the scholarship here at WT.

What Jackson said about women's athletics is absolutely true and it was abundantly proved right here at Canyon.

For some time after girls basketball was undertaken here at Canyon the girl Eagles were door mats in the district, winning few if any games. Little attention was paid them and even less spent on them.

Then one night at a school board meeting Jerry LaGrone, a board member, made some points.

"I'm getting tired of seeing our girls humiliated twice a week in basketball season," LaGrone told fellow members of the board. "We should either spend a little money on the team or discontinue girls basketball."

The board took the former course and the rest is history.

Canyon's girls won their district for the first time in 1968 but lost in regional.

The next year they won the state championship and have played an imposing role in their class of schoolgirl basketball since.

They were runners up for the state crown in 1970 and 1971 and were number one last year. They go to state this weekend for a possible repeat.

We still have had no satisfactory explanation from any member of commissioners court as to why they allow themselves $100 a month car expenses but make no detailed accounting of how it is spent.

Non-elected officials are allowed 10 cents a mile for car expenses and they have to account for every mile.

If the commissioners think they are worth $100 a month more than their present salary, I would not be opposed to them having it. For reasons I have stated emphatically before and which have not yet been denied by any member of the court as being valid, I oppose anyone drawing expense money from any governmental subdivision without accounting for every penny.

I have talked to some lawyers who are not certain that what the court is doing is even legal.

Wouldn't it be a nice kettle of fish if some irate taxpayer were to file for an injunction? If they got an adverse ruling commissioners just might have to repay any of that car expense money they couldn't account for mile by mile.

No one is more keenly aware than returning prisoners of war that the December bombing of North Vietnam brought about their release last week.

The December bombing applied the same pressure on the North Vietnamese that President Eisenhower applied on the Red Chinese at Hamburger Hill during the Korean conflict.

The hill's strategic importance was about nil but it was the test of wills between two powerful leaders. The Chinese were testing Ike to see how much he was willing to pay if they refused to come to some kind of acceptable terms. When Mao saw he was willing to pay the price, he came to terms and our POWs came home.

The North Vietnamese gave us one more test last fall. Nixon met it in much the same manner as Ike met the Chinese test. When Hanoi realized they could come to terms or look forward to four more years of destruction from the sky from a newly elected President, they came to terms and our POWs began coming home.

It is gratifying to note that returning POWs expressed gratitude to President Nixon for their release rather than to George McGovern, Jane Fonda, Ramsey Clark or Dr. Spock.

Opinion Asked On Retirement

An opinion of the legality of retirement benefits which differ on the basis of sex will be requested by the City of Canyon of the Texas attorney general.

City Manager George Loudder said Monday the San Antonio office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has recommended the city seek the opinion.

County Judge Woody Pond said he will be interested in the opinion, also, since the county's retirement system closely resembles that of the city.

The request by the city to the Attorney General is a result of discrimination charges leveled at the city's retirement system by a long-time employee.

Mrs. Marguerite Strain, a city employee for 27 years, filed charges of discrimination with the EEOC office in San Antonio last summer.

Her complaint charged the Texas Municipal Retirement System, under which Canyon city employees are covered, discriminates against women.

Loudder contacted the EEOC headquarters in Washington, D.C., in December for an opinion but he said Monday he had received no reply.

Loudder said he felt the General Council in Washington, D.C., had not rendered an opinion on the question because this is perhaps the first time they have been presented with the problem.

He said he felt the problem was of such magnitude and any decision would have such a far-reaching effect that this was the probable cause for the delay from the General Council.

Mrs. Strain contended the Texas Municipal Retirement System discriminates against women because women must work five years longer than men to receive equal retirement benefits.

The retirement system is based on actuary tables which differ on the basis of sex and Mrs. Strain contends this is illegal under the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Highlighting the performance is an original composition by Hilton.

The recital is being presented in partial fulfillment of graduation requirements for Bachelor of Music Education degrees in voice.

Mrs. Tucker Hosts Variety Ring Club

The home of Mrs. Reeta Tucker, 2514 10th Ave., was the setting for the Feb. 16 meeting of the Variety Ring Club. Mrs. Margaret Cole presided.

Members answered roll call by telling some interesting fact or fancy about Valentine Day. Readings were given by Mrs. Jettrew Winters and Mrs. Margaret Cole. A "follow up" was discussed on the Spanish family that the club had helped at Christmas.

Table appointments and refreshments carried out a patriotic theme. Favors were tiny red hatchets. Cherry pie, tid bits, tea, coffee and cokes were served to Mmes. Thelma Burtz, Alice Black, Margaret Cole, Mae Johnson, Jettrew Winters, Modena Barker, Laura Hartman, and Iva Priddy by the hostess, Mrs. Tucker.

Buffs At Home Versus Cards Tonight

West Texas State University's Buffaloes, suffering from a five-game losing streak, attempt to snap that string at home tonight against powerful Missouri Valley Conference rival Louisville.

Louisville's Cardinals bring a balanced team into Amarillo's Civic Center for the 7:30 p.m. game and one which is in contention for the MVC title.

The Cardinals will bring an 8-3 MVC record into the clash and an 18-6 overall mark. The Buffaloes are 2-8 in Valley play and 9-13 overall.

Three of the Cardinals are averaging in the double figures and the other two starters are near 10 points per game. The starters, with their scoring averages in parentheses, are 6-5 Ulysses Bridgeman (13.2), 6-9 Bill Bunton (8.2), 6-2 Bill Butler (14.3), 6-1½ Terry Howard (9.8) and 6-5 Allen Murphy (15.3).

Leading West Texas in scoring for the season is 6-5 Tommy Jordan. He supports a 19.8 scoring mark. Jerry Christian, the 6-6 senior forward, is scoring 17.3 and Reginald Ramey, 6-8 freshman, supports a 16.4 average. Other Buff starters are 6-6 Hector Rodriguez and 6-0 Mike Rodriguez.

Thursday's game is the start of a three-game home stand. The Buffs host Tulsa Saturday and New Mexico State Feb. 27.

All children, 12 years of age and younger, will be admitted to Thursday's game free of charge and will sit in the coliseum's south end.

Panhandle Savings and Loan has opened its doors in Canyon and an open house is planned around April 1. New manager of the branch facility is Wayne Sims.

Savings-Loan Plans Opening

Panhandle Savings and Loan Association which opened a branch office in Canyon about two weeks, plans an open house for the citizens of Canyon about April 1, according to Wayne Sims, manager.

The branch office employs three persons and has been in the planning stage for over a year.

Sims said the branch office was opened in Canyon because the association felt Canyon had good potential and as a service to the Canyon people.

"We are looking forward to participating in the growth of the Canyon area," he said.

Sims joined Panhandle Savings and Loan one month ago, coming to Canyon from an association with the Brownfield Savings and Loan.

He, his wife, Tricia, and their two daughters, live at the Canyon Creek Apartments. They are members of the First Baptist Church of Canyon.

Two Canyon Students Will Study Dentistry

Two pre-dental students from Canyon are among eight at West Texas State University accepted into Texas dental schools for the 1973 academic year.

They are Andy E. Sherrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Sherrod of 2501 11th Ave., and Mickey L. Weatherly of 1106 7th Ave. Both are seniors at WTSU.

Sherrod was accepted by the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston. Weatherly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Weatherly of Memphis, Tex., was accepted by Baylor College of Dentistry at Dallas.

Charles E. Wright, associate professor of biology and faculty advisor to the pre-dental students, said, "This is the largest number we ever had accepted at one time in the 25 years I have been here."

Sherrod has been selected for Alpha Chi, national scholastic honor society, Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and the Dean's List while at West Texas State.

He was president of his sophomore class and a member of the House of Delegates. Sherrod also was a member of Beta Beta Beta, international honorary biological society, and Kappa Alpha Order, men's social fraternity.

Weatherly is married and his wife, Joan, is a senior nursing student at West Texas State.

Other WTSU pre-dental students accepted included:

Al D. Lowe of Midland, Phillip L. Plunk of Stratford, both seniors, and William C. Brady of Claude, a junior, all by the Texas Dental Branch at Houston.

Thomas B. Aufdemorte of Amarillo, a senior, and Joe L. Carrick of El Paso, a junior, both by the Texas Dental Branch at San Antonio, and V. Wayne McEntire of Amarillo, a senior, by the Baylor College of Dentistry.

One girl is chosen from each high school in Amarillo, Canyon, and Vega and from seven other area schools.

Miss Crager has been an all-state and all-regional band member for four years, CSH twirler for three years, honor society member, senior class and student council secretary, choir and chorale member and a member of Rainbow.

Gene Howe News

Zanchettin and Coronado Voted Class Favorites

By TROYCE MULHERIN

JANE AND DICK Ives have been "thinking pink" for several months now. Positive thinking or pink thinking—it worked! They are the elated parents of a darling baby girl. Wendy Lee was born on Saturday, Feb. 17, weighing in at eight pounds, fourteen ounces. Being born wise in womanly wiles, Wendy Lee has captured her daddy's heart with a little help from the dimple on her chin and lots of dark hair.

WENDY LEE HAS two big brothers to welcome her home and to protect and watch out for her in times to come. Darin is eight years old and in the third grade at Gene Howe. Nolan is three years old. Both Darin and Nolan are quite pleased to have a sister, and she is quite fortunate to have such fine brothers. Congratulations to the five Ives on Wilshire Street!

BELATED BIRTHDAY WISHES to Mike Burkett. Mike decided to be a special Valentine for his mom and dad, and picked Feb. 14 as the day to be welcomed into this world. Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burkett.

DENISE TENNISON CELEBRATED her birthday with a few friends. Lori Burke, Jan Phipps and Sharon Mester joined with Denise for dinner at Shakey's, and a few turns around the skating rink before bedding down for a slumber party.

LOUISE AND WESLEY Bromley observed another anniversary Sunday, Feb. 18. This is the 19th time around for them, and Louise said it dawned on her that it was that time again while she was at church that morning. They may be celebrating calmly, but we think it's great and send very best of wishes to two of the finest people in our community.

DELBERT TENNISON'S SIXTH basketball team won their final game of the season last week. The boys showed who was boss to South Georgia with a score of 24-5. Tournament play is fast approaching, and with this win under their belts, the youngsters are ready to show someone else who is boss. Namely, Tennison's team!

A VERY HAPPY birthday to Pat Seth, who agreeably ages a year on the 21st.

DEEPEST SYMPATHIES ARE extended to the Jim Morrison family. Jim's mother, Mrs. E.S. (Anna Faye) Morrison passed away on the 12th. Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Morrison would have observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary in March. In addition to others, Mrs. Morrison is survived by twelve grandchildren and twenty-three great-grandchildren. Grandson Jay, son of the Jim Morrisons, served as one of the pallbearers.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Miss Paula Bennett, who will be eight years old as of the 25th. Paula is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bennett, and a happy "bit eight" to this young lady.

MARLA PHILLIPS, DAUGHTER of Bill and Margie Phillips, is sticking to a liquid diet conscientiously these days. Not because of a weight problem you understand—because of an oral surgery problem. Marla visited High Plains Hospital for a few days in order to have some troublesome wisdom teeth extracted. She is home and doing fine (with visions of steaks and corn-on-the-cob dancing in her head.).

ANOTHER SURGERY "VICTIM" outflanked us all. By the time word had gotten around that Beth Balke was going to the hospital for surgery, she had done done it and was back home feeling great. She did manage to feel puny enough on the day she came home for her thoughtful neighbors to bring dinner in. Glad you're home and glad you're well, Beth.

IF MIKE MOWRY comes a-knocking at your door, pay him some heed. Mike has tickets for a portable color television set to be given away by the Palo Duro Rangers. A $1.00 donation is requested, and the drawing will be held June 1. The Palo Duro Rangers have high hopes of being able to install lights for their arena, which is located about five miles south of Canyon. With luck, some wire fencing will be installed around the arena, too. In the past the Rangers have had to "rush up" some of their events in order to get through before dark. So, the lights will be welcome and are badly needed.

THE PALO DURO Rangers is a riding club, which has been organized for about two years, and claims about twenty-four families as members. Leon Ator of Amarillo is club president, and Mike's daddy, Richard Mowry, serves as Junior Director, in addition to other duties.

VISITED WITH KENNETH Cannon the other day, and he is not a bit bashful in bragging about his wife, Michele. Michele was recently honored with the L.F. Shelly Scholarship award for the spring semester at West Texas State University. Michele was one of ten history students to receive this scholarship, and is majoring in secondary education. Michele is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Morgan. Mr. Morgan works for Santa Fe. Proud parents, needless to say.

KENNETH AND MICHELE have been married almost a year now and live on Western (south, that is, way south). They will both be graduating from West Texas State in May. Kenneth was so engrossed in talking about Michele, he did not relate his major. No matter, this fine young couple will do well. Congratulations to you both.

THERE WAS SOME voting taking place at Canyon Junior High School last Friday. When the tally was taken, Steve Zanchettin, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.G. Zanchettin, had been elected as Seventh Grade Favorite. Great, Great, Great.

DAVID CORONADO, SON of Mr. and Mrs. David Coronado, was elected Freshman Favorite the same day. Additional honor afforded to David was being elected Basketball King. Can't beat those odds. Understand that the girls' basketball team does the balloting for Basketball King. A young man certainly wouldn't want to beat those odds. Serious congratulations to both these fine young men.

DAVID PLAYS BASKETBALL with the ninth grade White Team, which posted sixteen wins to three losses this season. Last win was over the ninth grade Purple Team. Following this game the White Team members presented Coach Tversky with a trophy and gathered for burgers and fries and good humored companionship at the Village Inn.

COMMON KNOWLEDGE BY now that the Canyon Girls Varsity Basketball Team, sometimes known as the Eaglettes, blasted Stephenville Saturday night in Sweetwater with a score of 79-49. This win guarantees the girls a berth in the state tournament for the fifth straight year. The state Class AAA Tourney in Austin begins Friday, with our girls seeking their third state championship and a second consecutive title.

ERNESTINE AND BILL Harp drove to Sweetwater for the game and to yell for their favorite team. Son Duane and Anita White and Dena Harp went along to do some cheering for their favorite team. Oh, Yes! All these people were cheering for their favorite player, too—namely, Diane Harp.

WAS QUITE PUZZLED by those numbers appearing after the player's names in reading about the game in Amarillo's "Brand X" paper. So, called reliable source (mother of daughter on team), and was informed that the first number indicated field goals scored; second number indicated free-throws; and, of course, the third indicates total number of scores accomplished. Just a simple fact of life some of us aren't born knowing. Makes a lot more sense this way.

FIRST THOUGHT WE readers were supposed to be able to figure the girls' age, weight, heighth, measurements, math averages from these numbers. Even a modern math student couldn't swing that.

A BIG PAT on the back to all these young ladies — we will all be cheering for you this weekend.

A VALENTINE TEA was held in conjunction with the general meeting held last Wednesday by the Northwest Texas Hospital Auxiliary. Reports were given reflecting the status of the multi-faceted programs undertaken by the auxiliary. A proposed slate of officers for 1973-74 was presented and included Mrs. D. Q. (Raydell) Palmer as candidate for president and Mrs. Winton (Darlene) Campbell as candidate for historian. Not to influence anyone's vote, or anything — but, these two ladies would constitute a winning team for any organization.

MELVINA BROWN, ONE of Gene Howe area's contributions to the Auxiliary, attended the tea and annual meeting. Melvina's working at the information desk these days and liking it real well.

SPECIAL BIRTHDAY wishes to a special miss, Dena Harp. May all your wishes come true.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall. Troyce

Track Meet Saturday For WTSU

West Texas State University's Buffaloes are expected to be among the top five finishers this week in the Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Track Meet at Des Moines, Ia.

The Saturday meet is better balanced than it has been in recent years when Drake has been the standout team. North Texas State, Wichita State, last year's outdoor champion, Memphis State and West Texas all have improved teams and could battle the defending champion Bulldogs.

Coach Bob Kitchens' Buffaloes have a two-year, two-time winner in hurdler Carl Brown. The 6-2 junior from Van Vleck has captured the 50-yard high hurdles and 50-yard intermediate hurdles for the past two seasons. He also holds the records in both events—6.0 in the intermediates and 6-1 in the highs.

Buffalo vaulter Warren Snow has yet to win an indoor title, but has won the MVC outdoor crown for the past two years at 15-0.

The Buffaloes have captured wins in each of their last two indoor meets. They beat the University of Texas at Arlington in a meet two weeks ago and last week beat both New Mexico State and Wayland Baptist College.

Sprinter Tracy Dickson, a junior, should contend for the 50 and 300-yard dash titles. He has a 5.2 time in the 50 and a 32.1 in the 300. Shot putters Dennis Briggs and Marvin Self should be among the strong contenders in that event. Cecil Hood has the top high jump effort in early meets among MVC teams at 6-8.

Following the MVC indoor meet the Buffs take a two-week break before meeting Eastern New Mexico University in a meet at Portales, N.M.

Easter Seal Appeal Starts

The 1973 Easter Seal Appeal will open in Randall County next Thursday, according to David West, Easter Seal representative for the county.

West said letters will begin arriving at homes in the county next Thursday.

As Easter Seal representative, West is the person to contact to request services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. Last year, 16,572 handicapped persons received help from the society.

ROLAND BLACK, THE Chamber of Commerce manager, told me that we had almost 400 people present at the banquet last week. That's a good turn-out. I must applaud the singing group, the New Day Seekers, directed by Dr. Hugh Sanders. Their pre-dinner entertainment was outstanding. Several at our table commented that they would like to get up and dance. Virginia Cotton and her helpers decorated the college cafeteria in a pink and orange decor that was beautiful.

DR. CORNETTE GAVE a rather witty welcome. He made the comment that Canyon does not have a sharp division between the university and the community. He said that if the chasm between the two was too wide it would divide many marriages because we have such an intermingling. I hope that Canyon always keeps the gap bridged.

DAVID WEST DID a good job of guiding the banquet program. We all appreciate David's work as president of the Chamber. He handed over the gavel to Raymond Raillard who has already began his term in excellent style. Betty Markham has already jumped in with both feet as president of the Women's Division. She presented a plaque of appreciation to Virginia Cotton, outgoing president.

DAVID WEST GAVE a very thoughtful and appreciative biographical sketch of the Outstanding Citizen of the Year—Eddie Knowles. Eddie and his wife, Betty, have been assets to Canyon and this award shows our gratitude. Congratulations to Joe Gidden for receiving the "Hustler of the Year." I am sure we all know that the award pertains to his contributions to Canyon and not his poolhall status.

KEITH JACKSON, ABC sports commentator, gave a thought-provoking talk. He related several anecdotes about his career, but he also made his convictions about sports known. He feels the sports world is becoming too regimented—leaving no room for improvisation. He feels kids need to be kids. Money has driven the real sportsminded people out and sports has become too much of a business.

ONE COMMENT I totally agreed with was Jackson's statement that American women would bring home many more Olympic medals if more money and coaching were available to them. Mr. Jackson gave weight to his convictions when he pledged to give half of his fee back to us, hopefully to go towards a girl's sports scholarship. This is what they call "Putting your money where your mouth is." Thank you, Keith Jackson.

SPEAKING OF HIS friend, Howard Cosell, Jackson said, "If he had dinner with everyone he says he has, he would weight 800 lbs."

AFTER THE BANQUET, I was visiting with Gene Glazener and Jim Brown; we are all from Dalhart originally. All three of us are on the Chamber Board of Directors, so I guess that's not bad for transplants.

I REGRETFULLY HAD to give up my Accent on the Arts column. I just did not have time to do it. I could not write it in good conscience without attending most of the fine arts events—but I do not have time to do that. Steve works me pretty hard as full-time bookkeeper for his business and I am also a full-time mother of two children. So I had to draw the line somewhere. I did enjoy it, though, and I hope I will be able to continue with this column—but I need your help. Y'all call me and let me know what's happening around town. My numbers are 655-9978 or 655-7131.

Pop-Rock-Country Sounds On Tap Sunday

A potpourri of musical talent will be the fare when The West Texas State University Student Activities Council presents a pop-rock-country concert Sunday featuring four Vegas Music International recording artists.

Performance time is 8 p.m. in the WT Fieldhouse. Tickets priced at $2.50 for WTSU students and $3.50 for the general public are now on sale at the Activities Center box office.

Heading the bill are San Antonio "down-home" singer Roy Clayborne, pop singer Hal Frazier, Texas singer-composer Benny Hester, seven-member pop-rock ensemble, "Westwood," and singer Jeannie Thomas.

Clayborne, whose music runs the gamut from country to rock and middle-of-the-road, began his career in San Antonio, playing dates in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico before graduating to the Las Vegas night club world.

Benny Hester

Frazier, whose album "No Man is an Island" featured a unique rendering of the popular inspirational tune, has made numerous television appearances, including those on the "Tonight Show" and "The Joey Bishop Show." He was featured performer at the Annual TV Newscaster's Banquet for President Richard M. Nixon, as well as in the "Miss Universe Pageant," and the "Crusade for Children" telethon in Louisville and Jerry Lewis' "Muscular Dystrophy Telethon."

He has been a popular Las Vegas entertainer, playing engagements at the Sahara and Sands Hotels and Caesar's Palace. He has also performed club dates in Juarez, Mexico City, Chicago, San Francisco and Ottawa.

Benny Hester, a native Texan, began his career on the concert stage as an accordian-player. Upon leaving his native state several years ago he was "discovered" by Vegas Music International producer Brent Maher. On the VMI label, he has cut an album, entitled "Benny."

Westwood, a vocal ensemble whose repertoire represents "the best in contemporary and pop music," combines the vocal talents of former musicians from "The Young Americans," "Doodletown Pipers", Disneyland's "Kids of the Kingdom" and the Norman Luboff Choir and USO shows.

Since its formation, the group has toured overseas, performed college and community concerts and is now a top name on the club circuit, playing stints at Las Vegas' Desert Inn and Frontier Hotels.

Film To Feature University

A 12-15 minute film featuring activities at West Texas State University is being produced this year by an Amarillo advertising agency sponsored by various campus organizations and the West Texas Ex-students, Inc.

Hank Brown, a prime mover behind the program, said Rosenwald and Associates of Amarillo is producing the film, which is being photographed by Amarillo photographer Bill Rhew.

Hal Mayfield, a graduate of WTSU, is writing the scenario for the film.

Shooting for the film began in September.

Brown said the film will be aimed primarily at two audiences—the high school and junior college student and parents.

"We hope to have it ready by May 1 when we have the Phoenix Club banquet," Brown said. "I'm calling it a recruiting film."

Brown said funding is coming from dormitories at WTSU, other sources and ex-students.

He said the film will feature activities which go on during a year at WTSU.

A dozen copies of the film will be made for distribution throughout the Panhandle to high schools, civic clubs and other interested groups.

Hopefully, Brown said the film can be updated annually so the expense of producing a new film each year will be avoided.

Former Resident Reported Missing

Mrs. Charlie Fisher, the former Carrie Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Bauer of Happy, has been reported missing with her husband and one other person aboard a yacht in the Pacific near the coast of Central America.

The report was heard on the Paul Harvey News on Tuesday by a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Stockett of Tulia. According to Harvey, "millionaire Charlie Fisher and his wife" had been missing since Dec. 5. However, the F.B.I. had traced their path through the Panama Canal on Dec. 15. No further word of the yacht and its passengers has been received, and fears were expressed that the party might have gone down in the earthquake disturbances off the coast of Nicaragua.

Mrs. Fisher, 48, grew up near Happy, but attended Canyon schools and graduated from Canyon High School. She and her husband had been making their home in Porto Vallarta, Mexico.

She has two sons by a former marriage, Randy Terryman, 18, of Portland, Ore., and Kendall Terryman, 15, attending school in southern California.

Laycock Speaks To Heritage Club

Dr. Kenneth Laycock presented a program of slides and commentary on the educational system in Russia to a meeting of Heritage Woman's Club Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Marita Crowder, 30 Village Dr.

In the business meeting, plans were discussed for the upcoming District Convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. The talent show committee reported that $400 had been earned for the benefit of Neblett Clinic Nursery.

Refreshments of cherry puffs, coffee and tea were served from a table decorated in a patriotic Washington-Lincoln theme. Hostesses were Mrs. Crowder, Mrs. Adrienne Pennington, and Mrs. Patricia Vise.

The next event will be a tour of Panhandle-Plains Museum on March 19. Mrs. Bonita Oliver will be the hostess.

HAPPY NEWS SAYS that three places on the local school will be voted upon on April 6. If you file an application, it must be in before March 7. I suppose that means that March 6 is the last day to turn in an application. It probably depends on how technical you want to get with the wording. Now is the time to consider running for the school board. Lonnie Todd is the only incumbent who has stated that he will run for re-election.

THURSDAY, THE FIRST night of play in the District Tournament, Happy Cowboys beat Lazbuddie 83 to 22. Amherst beat Nazareth 33 to 32. Then on Friday, Cowboys lost to Spade 78 to 63. The fourth quarter saw all five of Happy's starting line-up sitting on the bench. All had fouled out of play. Cotton Center easily won over Amherst 42 to 18. Amherst would not come back to the tournament on Saturday to play Happy Cowboys for third, so Happy won by a forfeit. Cotton Center beat Spade 50 to 49. "Good game," everyone said.

HAPPY IS LACKING in sportsmanship. We have not always been that way. Maybe if you remember when sportsmanship trophies were given in basketball tournaments, you don't have to worry about the draft? I played for a coach who took several teams to the state tournament and won the state title more than once. LeRoy Roberts took us to the regional tournament the second year that he coached in Happy. Bud taught us to go after the ball and not the "man." And we practiced our timing going after the ball. Bodily contact was strictly a "no-no" in basketball. True, we were always "innocent" until proven guilty by a referee pointing his finger our way. We bluffed our way through some embarrassing situations, but our attitude was not sarcastic. Bud taught us the power of positive thinking (and how to use it) and self discipline. I believe such traits stay with students into their adult years and surely do not mar their character. And why can't today's spectators yell FOR our team instead of against the opponents and referees? (It seems similar to politics. I prefer that a candidate run on his own merits instead of the faults of his opponent). The players aren't the only ones who need to improve their sportsmanship. It is everyone of us! No one is perfect. Sometimes we use this adage as an excuse to do as we please—to enter into activities or practices that we know to be against the will of God. I'm not saying who's to blame—coaches, school or parents—but I'm willing to do my part to improve Happy's attitude concerning SPORTSMANSHIP.

See ya!

Filing Deadline Week Away For Commission

Filing deadline for the City of Canyon commissioner election is just over a week away and deadline for candidates to file for the Canyon School Board or South Randall County Hospital board is two weeks away.

City Clerk Bob Moore said last day for filing to appear on the ballot in the April 3 city election is March 2.

Currently, two incumbents and one challenger have filed for two positions on the city commission.

Incumbents Willis Harrison and Felix Pierce have filed to seek re-election and Dr. J. Pat Stephens, government professor at West Texas State University, has filed to run against Pierce.

Moore said candidates will draw for positions on the ballot on March 6. March 12 is the final day for the public to voice objections in writing to the candidacy of any candidate. Absentee balloting begins March 14 and ends March 30.

Deadline for filing for candidacy for the School Board or hospital board is March 6. The election is scheduled for April 7 for both boards.

Currently, four persons have filed for election to two places available on the school board. Incumbent Richard Pruett, local restaurant owner, has filed, as have Pauline Hefley, local businesswoman, David Kent, WTSU tennis coach, and Dr. Wallace Johnston, industrial education professor at WTSU.

Harold Erwin, incumbent whose seat on the board is open during the election, has yet to file.

The four incumbents on the South Randall County Hospital district board have filed for re-election. They are Vernon Harman, Mrs. T. G. Hull, Bill Sternenberg and O. H. Rahlfs.

Absentee balloting for the two elections begins March 19.

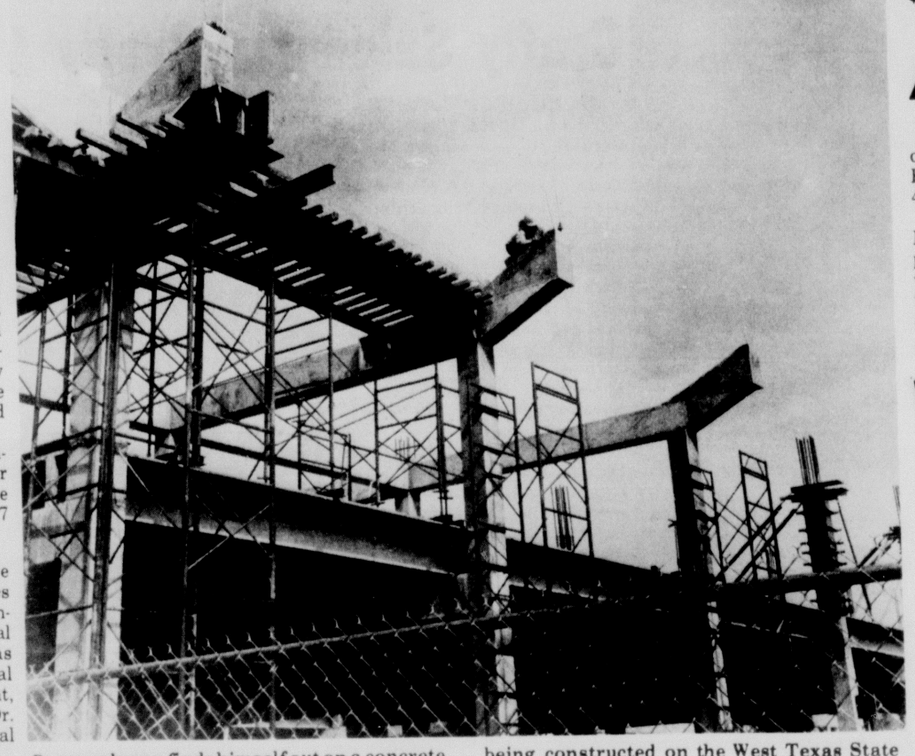
Highland Club Learns Craft

A craft demonstration was presented to Highland Home Demonstration Club at their meeting Wednesday, Feb. 14, in the home of Mrs. Clarence Howard.

Mrs. Fred Oglesby showed the group a small loom made from popsicle sticks and told how to make an attractive handbag from the woven material.

Those attending were Mmes. Melvin McClure, Siegfreid Bolte, Bob Podzemny, Ervin Podzemny, Bernard Grabber, and Boyd Elliott.

The next meeting will be Feb. 28 in the Bernard Grabber home with Mrs. Becky Hall presenting the program.



One workman finds himself cut on a concrete limb Tuesday afternoon as he adds touches to a portion of the new library building which is being constructed on the West Texas State University campus. The building is already rising well above ground level.

"The service we're getting here has been something less than desirable versus Amarillo," West charged. "And, I've been told this even by officials of the phone company that we're not getting the service we should be getting."

Mayor Bryan asked West to put his complaints with specifics in the form of a letter which would then be given commissioners for their future discussions with Bell.

West's complaints stirred other complaints about phone service from Commissioner Felix Pierce and City Attorney Elton Cox.

Pierce said his wife has had consistent trouble dialing numbers and has complained numerous times with no results.

Cox said he has had trouble with phone service, also.

In other action, commissioners approved awarding a contract for seal coating of city streets to Jake Diel of Hereford. Diel bid $12,680 for the job. Other bidders were J. Lee Milligan of Amarillo with $16,720, High Plains Pavers with $13,520.

Consumer's Fuel of Canyon received the contract as low bidder for city gasoline with a bid of .204 cents per gallon. Other bidders were Mobil Oil with .237, Brasher Oil Co. with .228 and B&T Oil Co. with .274.

Commissioners approved the surrender of an alley easement on property owned by the First Presbyterian Church. The easement runs across property upon which will be built a new church building.

Also approved was the calling of an election on April 7 to name two city commissioners and to consider a charter amendment concerning the franchise agreements the city makes with utility companies.

earned on the county money in deposit should be secondary to the protection afforded that money.

"The thing is to protect the taxpayers money not to make money," he said.

First National had previously made a bid which would equal yield interest equal to that yielded by U.S. Treasury notes. West Texas State Bank had bid a flat 4 per cent interest rate on time deposits.

Cox and Dist. Atty. George Dowlen also warned the commissioners that there are several stringent requirements on banks which are named depositories outside the county. They must, in effect, set up a branch office in Canyon to service the Randall County account, they said.

Fulgenzi suggested that since Randall County has a courthouse annex in South Amarillo, that office might serve as a county seat.

Cox reminded him that Canyon is the county seat.

Commissioner Jim Fletcher, after Fulgenzi's motion died for lack of a second, moved that the depository question be tabled for a week.

The motion passed.

In other business, the commissioners approved expenditure of $731.40 for a wheel puller for the road maintenance department.

Commissioners also passed a motion requiring all plats presented the court for approval to contain easements for utilities.

The motion was presented by Fletcher, who said the requirement would place the responsibility for utilities easements on the subdivider rather than the individual property owner.

Kurtz Named Bank Veep

Lloyd Kurtz, associated with First National Bank since 1970, was named Tuesday as vice president of the bank.

Kurtz, a native of Tulia, had been assistant cashier before the promotion.

He has been with the Canyon bank since Jan. 1, 1970, when he was hired as a part-time collector.

Kurtz is a 1961 graduate of Tulia High School and a 1970 graduate of West Texas State University where he received a degree in computer accounting.

Lloyd Kurtz

He is a member of the Lions Club and the Canyon Jaycees. He is a volunteer with the Canyon Fire Department and a director of the American Cancer Society drive in the county.

He is a member of First Presbyterian Church.

Prior to coming to First National Bank, Kurtz was associated with Western National Bank in Amarillo.

He lives with his wife, Sheila in Canyon.

In other business, the board received some ominous warnings from business manager Ray Schultz that the price squeeze is making itself known in the school budget.

"Everything is going up," he said. "Paper goods are up 10 to 12 per cent next year."

Schultz said inflation has reduced the amount of equipment or supplies which can be purchased with the school dollar.

Board members also approved a recommendation that the Canyon teachers continue to be paid $500 above the state salary schedule for teachers.

The Calhoun Sandies are coached by Miss Janette Barlow and this is their first year even to go to the regional championship.

A school spokesman said the Sandies won district championship in 1968 but failed to advance past that stage.

The Sandies sported an 8-2 district record and won their district play-off game against Victoria.

Starters for the Sandies will be Forwards Allene Hunt, Donna Gary, Delana Cornett, and Guards Karla Meyer, Nancy Kalisek, and Lee Anne Gaskant.

Traveling to Austin are Girl Eagles Kim Killingsworth, Alisha Nelson, Sheryl Gunter, Mendy Sternenberg, Carla Swatzell, Diane Harp, Sheryl Adams, Lynn Davis, Susan Hull, Judy McBroom, Carla Ratliff, Cindy Bullock, Debbie Abbott, Rhonda Umberson and Pebbie Luquette.

If the Girl Eagles win their Friday night outing, they will advance into the state finals Saturday night.

$750,000 Suit Filed Here Alleges Shooting Injuries

A $750,000 civil suit, the result of a mid-summer shooting in Randall County, was filed in 47th District Court here Monday.

Clyde Edward Wagner of Potter County, who alleges he is permanently paralyzed from the waist down due to the shooting, filed the suit against Richard L. and Barbara Hinnant of South Amarillo.

Wagner seeks $500,000 actual damages and $250,000 exemplary damages in his suit.

Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen said the Randall County grand jury took no action on the alleged shooting when it was presented in September.

No charges were filed in the county in connection with the alleged shooting.

"Mr. Wagner was allegedly shot by Mr. Hinnant on the roof of Mrs. Alexander's (now Mrs. Hinnant) home about 1 a.m. on July 16," Dowlen said. "Mrs. Alexander, who is now Mrs. Hinnant, related to police that she had been having trouble with prowlers and she and Mr. Hinnant had just returned to her home. She said she heard outside a sound, went outside and discovered a prowler on the roof and Mr. Hinnant shot the prowler."

Wagner alleges in his suit that he was shot by Hinnant and was encouraged in the shooting by Mrs. Hinnant.

He says as a result of the shooting he "suffered a severe and permanent wound and injury to his spinal cord . . . permanently injuring plaintiff to such an extent that he is paralyzed from the waist down and has been unable to work and earn a livelihood since said date and is permanently disabled and will never during the remainder of his life be able to work and earn a livelihood."

The suit alleges that the plaintiff is desiring of $250,000 for mental and physical suffering, $250,000 for loss of income and $250,000 for exemplary damages.

Wagner is represented by Kolander, Templeton & Hamilton, Amarillo attorneys.

WTSU . . .

which considers all higher education legislation outside of financing.

Poff said the legislature will probably be reluctant to give WTSU 100 per cent formula financing due to the precedent it would set.

"Our chances of getting $1 million back are fairly good," he said. "That means we'd have to have the same budget we had this year, but I think we can hold our own and get what we got this time."

Turning to other legislative issues, Poff said support for a constitutional amendment to Article 5, which calls for widespread reform of the state judicial system is generally lacking.

He noted that parts of the proposed revision will probably be included in any new constitution written for the state, but that as a total package, the revision bill "has no chance."

"I think people like to elect their judges," he said. "This is a utopian court system and people don't live in utopia and they don't want it."

The reform, a measure drawn up and supported by the chief justice of the state supreme court has received state-wide criticism from county officials.

Poff said a bill to extend scabies control measures to include cattle spraying has not yet been introduced in the Legislature.

"I'll probably put on an amendment regarding the time or weather conditions," he said, noting that cattle dipping for scabies is largely criticized because in winter weather it can cause serious cattle loss and disease.

In connection with Gov. Dolph Briscoe's proposal to reduce possession of marijuana to a misdemeanor, Poff said the idea is popular in Austin.

"The fight will be over how much you need to have to be presumed a seller and the penalty," he said.

Poff said two Legislators from Houston are planning to introduce legislation which will have a direct bearing on abortions. Currently, he said no abortion bill has been presented the Legislature.

The bill which the two Houston men would present would make it murder to kill any child who has brain waves.

The recommendation came from the Joint Professional Communications Committee of the school district.

Jacobs said Amarillo pays its teachers $700 above the state schedule, Perryton pays $750 above and Tulia pays $300 above.

The board also re-employed the Canyon school principals and other supervisory, and counselling staff.

More and more people are wising up to the low cost of electric heat

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and three persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region #5 for January, 1973 shows a total of 572 accidents, resulting in 16 persons killed and 207 persons injured as compared to January, 1972 with 500 accidents resulting in nine persons killed and 217 persons injured.

Palisades Palaver

Crafty Salesmen, Crafty Art Are Luncheon Topics

By MILDRED TURNER

WELL, HERE I am sitting here at my desk staring at the telephone. It is 8:32. I've done all sorts of things, the phone has done absolutely nothing. I always get suspicious of a phone that just "sits" while, I take a luxurious bath, so I've got my file, nail polish, buttons to sew on and a hem ready to put in, in case it starts ringing and forgets to stop. I loathe leaving a warm bath to trapse drippily to the phone, only to hear, "Sorry, I have the wrong number." If it's you I won't mind at all.

THE PALISADES HOME Demonstration Club met with Reba Guess last Thursday. Our covered dish luncheon had a Valentine theme carried out in centerpiece and desserts of all sorts. Everything was so tasty and delicious but someone declared the calories had been cooked out so we all readily ate to our hearts content.

THERE WAS A lot of laughing going on as members answered the roll "How to cope with high pressured salesmen." The most frequently used was "I'm not interested." Although we don't have many door-to door people, we do get a lot of unwanted telephone calls to which Harry Brace was voted the "most annoying." Becky Hall gave a most interesting program, showing on film the pitfalls which high pressure sales people can cause if we are not cautious. Our district meeting will be at Boy's Ranch on March 29. Everyone of you club members are welcome to attend. Often our district meetings are much farther away.

MEMBERS PRESENT WERE: Lola Jackson, Marcella Carlile, Judy Webb, Joyce McDonald, Nell Moore, Estelle Atkerson, Margie Carlile, Carolyn Bailey, Becky Guess, June Hooker, Lena Edwards, and yours truly. A guest, Sue D'Ange, who lives in the Brown house adjoining Pool's place, we enjoyed having. Her husband, Eric, is owner of E and E Cement Company.

NELL SHOWED SOME arts and crafts ideas she has collected. She told us Beverly Norman is going to help us do some work called "Moon Stone." You need a mirror, picture and Elmer's glue. After placing your picture on the mirror, allow to dry. Keep the glue convenient to add a coat several times a day, allowing to dry between coats. This can go on over a period of time until desired crackled effect has been accomplished.

OUR NEXT MEETING will be March 1 at Joyce McDonald's.

THE MERRY MAKER'S (4-H) Club are cooking now. One of their latest creations was "pancakes." This should help the mothers greatly on Saturday morning as these young ladies prepare breakfast and clean up afterwards. They plan on cooking fruits and vegetables this week so it looks like they are progressing nicely.

TALKED TO BEVERLY Strecker this week and she reported the Palisades Sunday School is doing fine. They plan to add a worship service this weekend. If you do not attend anywhere, you are invited and you may come and visit even if you go somewhere.

THE PALISADE'S CLUB board meeting has been changed from second Tuesday to third Tuesday each month.

OUR NUMBER TWO daughter and her husband and son will be over more often since moving to Albuquerque (I hope I got all the "qs" in!)

I CALLED ERNIE'S house this week but did not get anyone. I think his sign "Ern's Turn" is cute. I've been working on something to go out here in front like "Turn's Urn" or Turner's Turnpike," but just don't make good sense. I'll come up with something one of these days. Maybe "Possum Hallow."

WHILE VISITING MYRTLE Forster this week she told me of her trip to Hemsted, Baytown and Temple where she visited friends, relatives and attended business. Her trip was most pleasant until the returning part where she experienced "all" the varieties of Texas weather. While I was there, she showed me some goodies Robbi brought back from her shopping jaunt in Germany.

MAMA TURNER STILL isn't doing well, however, since there were several kinsfolk around Amarillo to look after her, Garland wanted to get away for the weekend. We ran down to Childress to visit his brother Leon and wife Mary, daughter Connie. Janet, Sheree, Connie and one of Connie's girl friends had a giggling time. On Sunday we drove over near Paducah to check on the aunts: Blanche Chaney, cousin Bud, Uncle Arthur and Aunt Mattie Decker. We had heard Aunt Mattie had broken her hip so we drove over to cheer her up. Their children live away but keep in close contact. Occasionally their friends or neighbors drop in. Uncle Arthur had a birthday recently and was 86. He does the cooking, cleaning and goes hunting on the side. Perhaps we need some lessons from him! Aunt Mattie turns 80 in September, does all sorts of fancy hand work, tatting, crocheting, which she sells, trades or mostly gives away. You seldom see her empty handed. She usually drives but since she's in a wheel chair, he has had to drive and shop. She refused to go to the hospital because they won't let you out once you get in and God is healing her beautifully at home. I told Aunt Mattie we came out expecting to see a pale old lady, moaning and groaning, but instead found her rosy cheeked, bright eyed, busy, and delightfully cheerful. Her reply was, "You just made my day." I told son-in-law #1 (Gene) later, "I hope I make a sweet old lady." He sadly replied, "Too late!" I wonder what he meant by that? I don't know if he was trying to tell me I was already too old or too past the sweet stage or both! Anyway these aunts and Uncle Arthur are a delight to be around, crippled or not. We had a pleasant weekend.

Junior Colleges Guests For "Mary of Scotland"

A trip to England and Scotland to study architecture. . . . .

Thirty elaborate Elizabethean costumes made from cast-off velvet, tapestry, furs, lace and pearls. . . . .

A set with a spiral staircase and five other staircases, several hidden from the audience. . . .

Rehearsals, lights, and the thousand incidentals. . . . .

These are all part of Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland" scheduled for presentation today through Feb. 25 at West Texas State University.

The play, one of Anderson's Tudor Triology of 16th century historical plays that also includes "Anne of the Thousand Days" and "Elizabeth the Queen," will be presented at 8 p.m. Feb. 21-24,at 2 p.m. Feb. 25 in the WTSU Branding Iron Theatre.

"Mary of Scotland" is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, play publisher of New York City.

Direction is under William A. Moore, associate professor of drama. His wife, Margaret Echols Moore, is acting coach, and James Kemmerling, instructor in speech, is technical director and designer.

Costumes are by Mrs. Robert O'Keefe of Amarillo, who was formerly a professional costume designer in New York City.

Dr. Moore said drama students from area junior colleges will be special guest of the WTSU department for the performances.

Special guest will be Amarillo College drama Department under the direction of John Hodges Wednesday night; Clarendon College under direction of Norma Selvidge, Thursday night; Frank Phillips College and director John Banvard, Friday night and South Plains College at Levelland under direction of Helen Roberts, Saturday night.

Special guests for the Sunday performance will be former members of Alpha Psi Omega at West Texas State University and Mrs. Oma Link Rawley, former cast sponsor of Alpha Psi Omega.

A brief summary of the plot is as follows:

Mary of Scotland arrives to rule her country. She is met by the Earl of Bothwell, a blunt, brave and loyal admirer. Queen Elizabeth, reigning in England, fears Mary—she knows that with her beauty and legitimate claim on the throne of England she constitutes a menace to Elizabeth's safety. Elizabeth plots to dethrone her without the expense of war. She will use weapons, scandal, intrigue, spying.

Elizabeth, by objecting, throws Mary into the arms of the Catholic Darnley, a weak, stupid man. In the second act, Mary expects an heir to the throne and Darnley has proved to be a boor and a drunkard.

Then the Earls of Scotland have Darnley murdered and Bothwell returns from exile. Elizabeth lets the earls know she approves the marriage of Mary and Bothwell so that she may better spread the rumor of the queen's perfidy and Bothwell's murderous treachery.

Elizabeth's plan works. Knox, the fanatical anti-Catholic rouses the army against Mary and they deliver her to the Earls.

They hold her captive. Bothwell offers to leave the kingdom and give up his earldom providing the queen's powers remain intact. The Earls agree. Bothwell escapes but Mary is held captive. She escapes to England for aid and is held captive there.

Elizabeth finally comes to see Mary and asks her to abdicate in favor of her son. Mary begins to see the hand of Elizabeth in everything that has happened to her. Elizabeth admits that she feared her from the first and had to destroy her to win.

Mary refuses to abdicate though she rots in her cell and tells the Queen that she, Mary, has been victorious as a woman, for she lived and loved and bore a child but that Elizabeth has only schemed and hated and has borne no heir.

Cast in the play are Linda Rockwell, Amarillo junior, as Mary Stuart; Sheila O'Keef, Amarillo freshman, as Elizabeth Tudor; Lynn Mathis, Amarillo freshman, as John Knox, and Dr. William Laur, Amarillo graduate student, as Lofd Burghley.

Also cast in the play are Steve Stone, Friona freshman; Jerry Moore, Clarendon senior; Gary Day, Dalhart freshman; Don Washburn, Amarillo freshman; Valerie McCarthy, Englewood (Colo.) sophomore; Kim Durden, Canyon sophomore; Nora Wade, Amarillo freshman; Marla Rupp, Amarillo freshman; Ron Williams, Amarillo sophomore; Randy Clements, Hereford freshman; Rene Clemente, El Paso senior; Billy Black, El Paso sophomore; Dwight Smith, Shamrock freshman; Travis Dean, Amarillo sophomore; Matt Ohmes, Perryton freshman; and Doug Stewart, Amarillo freshman.

Tickets for the production, priced at $1.50 for adults and $1 for non-WTSU students, are now on sale in the BIT box office. WTSU students with ID cards may pick up tickets without charge.

The second Panhandle "Horse Sense" Conference for persons of all ages will be held March 9-10 at the Bill Cody Arena of the Tri-State Fairgrounds in Amarillo.

The event is sponsored by the West Texas State University School of Agriculture and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Larry Kasten, head of the WTSU horsemanship program, said the conference will include demonstrations and lectures.

"There will be demonstrations on training the young horse, re-schooling the broke horse, basic western horsemanship as applied to performance events, training and showing of cutting, roping, reining, pleasure and barrel horses" he said.

"In addition, there will be lectures on nutrition, reproduction and rope and leather crafts," he added.

Registration will be from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. March 9 and 8-9 a.m. March 10 at the Bill Cody Arena.

Fees are $3 for adults and $1 for persons 9 to 19 years of age, Kasten said. Children under 9 will be admitted free, he said.

Two Ratings Will Be Sought For Hospital District Bonds

Four members of the Randall County Hospital District will go to New York City March 15 and 16 to obtain a bond rating on revenue bonds to be issued for the new hospital.

The board decided after discussion with Bob Davis of Columbian Securities of San Antonio to obtain a rating from two rating firms in New York.

Ray Grimes, hospital administrator, Mrs. Lois Hull, board president, Mrs. Nolan Henson, board secretary, and a member of the financial committee will make the presentation to the rating firms.

Davis told the board he would like to see a rating from both firms because "revenue bonds are not the easiest things to sell." Davis said he expected a BAAI rating.

The board also approved a 20 year maturity schedule for the bonds. Davis recommended the 20 year schedule saying a 15 year schedule "might be pretty tight" considering unforeseen events.

Davis said the board could include a 15 year option and pay off the bonds early if in a position to do so.

Current plans are to let bids for the hospital May 1 and Bill O'Connell, architect, said the hospital would be in complete operation within a year to 18 months.

O'Connell presented the board with a floor plan for the hosptial and discussed current building costs with the board.

O'Connell estimated the 40,000 square foot hospital to cost $1,737,000 based on a building cost of $35 a square foot and including $200,000 for new equipment.

However, board members indicated the hospital could be built for less than $35 a square foot. The 40,000 square foot figure included 6,000 square feet which will be shelled in for use as doctor's offices.

The board said the 6,000 square feet could probably be built for about $20 a square foot.

Grimes said the $1,737,000 quoted by O'Connell is not what the hospital board is shooting for. "It can't be that high," Grimes said. "We must by necessity stay within the $1,600,000," which was approved.

An approximate $120,000 must also be used from the revenue bonds to set up escrow and sinking funds, pay advisory fees and expenses to obtain a bond rating, according to Davis.

Board members indicated if the hospital bids were let at the present time they would expect a bid of about $30 a square foot which would leave them within the $1,600,000 figure.

Davis told the board, "If you go over what the people have understood all the time you are in trouble. If you go with what you've said, you'll be right."

The board set Saturday, April 7, as election day for the hospital board. Terms of four members expire and all have submitted petitions for re-election. These board members are Mrs. Hull, Vernon Harman, Bill Sternenberg and O.H. Rahlfs.

To file for election for the hospital board, persons must present a petition signed by 10 qualified voters to any hospital board member. Petitions may be obtained from Mrs. Henson.

The election will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Community Center. Absentee voting will be held at Neblett Hospital.

The newly elected board members will serve until April, 1975.

Grimes also reported to the board $88,000 was collected through taxes for the months of November and December.
